Notice about these instructions and forms

These instructions are not a complete statement of the law. They cover basic procedures for simple dissolution cases involving custody, parenting time, and child support. If you have complicated issues or questions about the law, talk to a lawyer.

All of the necessary forms should be online. If you cannot find a form, ask your local court.

Each court has local rules, programs, and procedures that may not be explained in these instructions. Refer to the Supplementary Local Rules for your county. These rules are available online or at your local court or law library. Forms and information about your local court are on the Oregon Judicial Department website.

PART 1

STARTING YOUR CASE

Information about Dissolution

- ❖ Petition and Judgment - A dissolution case starts with a “petition,” which tells the court what you want. That’s why you are called the “petitioner.” The other parent is the “respondent.” The case ends with a “judgment,” which is the court’s final decision. The judgment is the document that finalizes your case and contains your rights and responsibilities. Your dissolution is effective once the judge signs the judgment. (See “The Judgment” section for more details about the terms of your judgment)
  - NOTE: the general judgment in this case will create rights and responsibilities that may be permanent. Custody, parenting time, and support orders often can be modified later, but property orders usually can’t. Talk to a lawyer if you have questions about these issues.
- ❖ Contact Information - Keep the court and all other parties informed of your current address. You don’t have to use your home address. You may use any contact address where you regularly check in, as long as it is in the same state as your home. The court will assume that you receive all notices and documents sent to that address. It is YOUR responsibility to let the court and other parties know if you move or want to get mail at a different address.
- ❖ Divorce can affect other documents like wills, medical advance directives, trusts, and pensions. Divorce may also affect immigration status. Talk to a lawyer for more information.

WHO IS A “CHILD”?

- “Child” means any child who was born, conceived, or adopted during this marriage or Registered Domestic Partnership (RDP). It also includes any children of both Petitioner and Respondent who were born prior to the marriage or RDP.
- Children who have been emancipated are not “children” for purposes of these forms. A child is considered emancipated (independent) if the child:
  - Has been declared emancipated by a court order or
  - Is legally and validly married
- Adult Children: If you and the respondent have any children together who are 18, 19, or 20 years old, each child is a “necessary party” to this case until his or her 21st birthday. Each child must be included in your filings and properly served with all documents. A child may later waive the right to be part of the case, but this must be done formally after you file. If you fail to properly serve an adult child, your case may be delayed until you do.
- Child Attending School, ORS 107.108: If you have an adult child (see above), child support may be ordered for that child as long as the child is attending school. See Appendix E for more information.

- If you have children under 18 AND at least one child 18, 19, or 20, use this form.
- If you have ONLY children 18, 19, or 20, use the Petition for Dissolution With Adult Children Only (coming soon, talk to a lawyer)
- If you only have children 21 or older, use the Petition for Dissolution with No Children

CO-PARENTING EDUCATION

Many courts require that parents of minor children go to a court-approved co-parenting class. Some courts will not allow you to finalize your case until you have completed the class and filed a certificate of completion with the court. Contact the court to see if you have to sign up or if the court will send you information after you file.

STEP 1: STARTING YOUR CASE

Keep In Mind:

- Talk to a lawyer if you or Respondent is already in bankruptcy. The court may not be able to proceed with your dissolution until the bankruptcy is resolved.
- Registered Domestic Partners (RDP) should see a lawyer if partner support is requested and either party might move out of state. If the new state does not recognize RDPs, you may have trouble collecting partner support.
- You may be entitled to part of the respondent's retirement benefits. See the "Property and Debts" section for important information. You may lose this right if you do not include it in your Petition.

Legal Questions

➤ Where to File

- Marriage – you must file in a county where either you or your spouse lives at the time you file. One spouse must have lived in Oregon for at least 6 months before the Petition is filed.
- RDP – you must file in a county where either you or your partner lives. If neither of you lives in Oregon but your RDP was registered here, you can file in the county where either of you last lived.

➤ Statutory Restraining Order

By filing your Petition, you agree to follow the terms of an automatic restraining order. The order is effective once the papers have been served on the respondent (see below for service information). If you don't follow the order, you can be held in contempt of court and subject to penalties.

- You must attach a copy of the restraining order (called "Notice of Statutory Restraining Order Preventing the Dissipation of Assets in Domestic Relations Actions") to the Summons and serve it on the respondent.
- The statutory restraining order prevents either party from:
  - Dissipating (transferring, selling, destroying, removing, disposing of) real or personal property.
  - Making changes to insurance policies without the agreement of the other party.
  - Making extraordinary expenditures (unusual or high-dollar payments or purchases). Expenditures that are necessary for the safety or welfare of the parties, ordinary business activities, or related to this court case are allowed.

➤ Name Change

If you changed your last name when you got married or registered as domestic partners and want to change it back to a former legal name, you can request that on your Petition. NOTE: You cannot use this form to change your name to a name you have never used before.

- RDPs: If you changed your name through a separate name-change judgment and want to change it back, you should also file for another judgment to do that. Do not rely on the dissolution judgment to be effective for all purposes, especially federal records like Social Security, Medicare, and immigration. Talk to a lawyer if you have concerns.

If Both Parties Agree on All Issues

Filing separately

You can file as Petitioner and the respondent can accept service of the Petition. Complete the appropriate General Judgment form and have both parties sign it. If you file separately, each party is required to pay a fee.

- The respondent can choose not to file a Response. If no response is filed, judgment will be entered based on what is in the Petition after you file a Motion for Order of Default (see “By Default” section below).

Filing together

You can choose to file as Co-parties using the Co-party Petition for Entry of Stipulated Judgment form. You do not have to complete or serve the regular Petition if you choose to file a co-party petition. Complete the appropriate General Judgment form and file it with your Co-party Petition. All of the information you need to complete the forms is in these instructions.

- If you file as co-parties, one of you will be labeled ‘petitioner’ and the other will be ‘respondent.’ There is no legal or procedural difference between the “petitioner” and “respondent” in co-party filings.
- If you file as co-parties, only one filing fee is required at the time of filing. Note that if you file as co-parties and later need to file a modification of judgment, you will have to pay both the filing fee for modification of judgment and the second initial filing fee.

Filling Out The Forms

- MAKE SURE YOU COMPLETE THE COUNTY NAME AT THE TOP OF THE FIRST PAGE OF EACH FORM!
- You are the “Petitioner” on ALL forms throughout this case,

and your spouse or partner is the “Respondent.”

- Use full names (first, middle or middle initial, last) and print names the same way on all forms – first, middle, last.

- Do not put Social Security numbers on your Petition. Social Security numbers must be given to the court but kept confidential from the public and the other party. Use the “Confidential Information Form (CIF)” to protect your identifying information.
  - Fill out one CIF for each party, including adult children.
  - The Notice of Filing of Confidential Information Form must be served on the respondent with your other documents. See below for information about service.

- If the other parent does not respond, you may be able to get a judgment by default (see “Resolving Your Case,” below, for more information). As you fill out your Petition, you must include enough information that the respondent knows what you are asking for. If you do not include specific requests, the court will not be able to enter a judgment by default until after you serve amended (changed) paperwork on the respondent.
  - NOTE: this often happens with parenting plans, property awards, and debt allocations. See the Appendices for specific information.

Fill out the following forms

- Petition for Dissolution of Marriage/RDP
- Summons
- Record of Dissolution of Marriage, Annulment or Registered Domestic Partnership
- Confidential Information Form (CIF)
- Notice of Filing of Confidential Information Form
- Certificate of Mailing or Delivery to Division of Child Support (ONLY if you or Respondent receives certain types of public assistance – see “Make Copies” below)

You may need additional paperwork before the court can enter a judgment. See the Appendices for more information about when you need each form.

- ◇ Uniform Support Declaration – See Appendix A
- ◇ Statement of Assets & Liabilities – See Appendix C
- ◇ Parenting Plan – See Appendix D

CHILDREN

UCCJEA

The Uniform Child Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act (UCCJEA) is a law that controls which state can decide issues of custody and parenting time. In most cases, if all of the children you are asking the court to address have lived in Oregon for the six months before you filed the Petition, Oregon can make a decision. You must provide certain information before an Oregon court can decide custody or parenting time. Click here to read the UCCJEA (ORS 109.701-.834)

If you have any other orders or judgments about custody or parenting time from other states, or if any of your children have not lived in Oregon for six months before you file, you should see a lawyer.

NOTE: If your child is under 6 months old, write “birth”, do not enter their birthdate.

Custody and Parenting Time (Visitation)

Read ORS 107.137 for issues a court will consider when awarding custody. The most important factor is always the best interest and welfare of the child.

Custody and Parenting Time

Joint and Sole Custody are legal terms that generally refer to the right to make certain decisions about the child. The parenting plan controls how much time each parent has with the child. See Appendix D for important information about custody and parenting plans. The court can only award joint custody if both parents agree to all of the terms. In most cases, both parents will have equal rights to information about the child regardless of the type of custody ordered. Both parents will have time with the child unless the court orders otherwise.

Parenting Plans

To avoid delay in your case, your Petition should include a parenting plan. A parenting plan sets out the schedule and rules for each parent’s time with the child. Your plan must include the minimum amount of parenting time (formerly called “visitation”) you want non-custodial parent to have. You can be as detailed as you like. You can describe the parenting plan in the Petition or you can attach a separate page.

At the end of your case, the Judgment must contain a parenting plan. The parenting plan can be a part of the judgment form, or it can be in an attached document. See Appendix D for more information about parenting plans.

Moving – The Judgment will prohibit either parent from moving more than 60 miles farther away from the other parent without giving written notice to the court and the other parent.

You can ask the judge to waive this rule by checking the appropriate box on the Petition and explaining why you should not have to give notice of a move.

Safety

If you have safety concerns, you may be able to suspend certain rights that the non-custodial parent automatically has. Check the appropriate box on the Petition. These rights include your duty to provide contact information and to tell the other parent if there is a major health concern for the children. ORS 107.154 and 107.164 list the rights of a non-custodial parent. You MUST have a valid, legal reason for suspending these rights. Talk to a lawyer about these issues.

SUPPORT

Child Support

Calculating Child Support

In most cases, the court will order child support if you have a child and no child support order already exists. Go to www.oregonchildsupport.gov/calculator for worksheets and an interactive program to calculate support.

Click on this link:

Go to Guidelines Calculator

Worksheets must be submitted to the court before a judgment can be entered. You can submit them with your Petition. At the latest, you can submit them with your Judgment.

➤ NOTE: If you request a child support amount that is different from what the calculator or worksheet says, you must explain why and how you reached that amount. If not, your case may be delayed until you explain the difference.

Payment of Child Support

Support is usually withheld from the payor's (the person who has to pay support) paycheck. The court may allow an exception to the income withholding requirement if you qualify under ORS 25.396 and if you request an exception in the Petition. If the court grants an exception to income withholding, payment can be made by direct deposit to the receiver's bank account. If you are paying child support directly to the other parent, you should keep proof of every payment, including a receipt if you pay cash.

See Appendix E for information about how payments are made to adult children attending school.

Child support is NOT taxable as income or deductible to either party.

Health Insurance

Your judgment must address health insurance for any minor child involved in your case. Health insurance coverage may be provided through an employer or directly from an insurance carrier, or from a public option such as the Oregon Health Plan, which you have to apply to the state for.

Cash Medical Support

In addition to child support, the court may order "Cash Medical Support." Cash Medical Support is to help pay for health insurance and out-of-pocket medical expenses.

If health insurance is not available, the court must order Cash Medical Support unless the judge finds reasons not to. The judge cannot order Cash Medical Support in some situations.

Go to <http://oregonlawhelp.org/resource/insurance-for-children> for additional information about insurance

Adult Children (18-21)

If you have any child 18, 19, or 20 years old who is not married or emancipated, that child is a necessary party to this case. He or she must be added as a party in the case caption and has the right to participate. Adult children who are attending school at least half-time may seek child support from either or both parents. See Appendix E for more information about a Child Attending School.

You must properly serve each adult child with all the same papers as Respondent (see section below about serving the other party). After being served, a child may sign a Waiver of Further Appearance and Consent to Entry of Judgment form if the child chooses not to participate in the case.

Spousal/Partner Support

There are three different categories of spousal or partner support in Oregon:

- Transitional support is to help you get work-related education and training
- Compensatory support may be ordered if you significantly contributed to the education, training, job skills, career, or earning capacity of your spouse or partner
- Maintenance may be ordered for your general support

Either party may request and be awarded support. More than one type of support may be awarded. Any award may be ongoing or for a particular period of time (such as 3 years, while in school, up to a certain amount, etc.).

If you and Respondent do not agree on support, you need to submit a Uniform Support Declaration. See Appendix A for more information.

For more information on factors the judge will consider when making the award, see ORS 107.105.

- NOTE: Support is also available to Registered Domestic Partners. If either partner might leave the state or declare bankruptcy, you should see a lawyer.

Talk to a tax professional about tax impact of spousal/partner support.

Life Insurance

The court can order a party to carry life insurance if that party is ordered to pay either child or spousal/partner support. Life insurance in connection with a support obligation is for the benefit of the person receiving support.

PROPERTY AND DEBTS

You need to tell the court how you want to divide your property and debts. You should be as specific as possible and include everything you and the respondent own or owe. If any property or debts are not included in your judgment, you cannot return to court to make changes later except in very limited circumstances.

If you don't know what to ask for in your Petition, you can request "equitable relief." This means that the judge will decide what is fair if your case goes to trial. You should talk to a lawyer if you intend to do this.

You will probably have to serve new documents on the respondent before you can get a final judgment if:

- you are not specific in your Petition about how you want the court to divide property and debts (including if you asked for equitable relief)
- or
- what you put in the Judgment is different from what you asked for in the Petition

You may be entitled to part of the respondent's retirement benefits (including pensions). If you do not address retirement benefits in your judgment, you will lose the right to claim your share except in very limited circumstances. These forms will not divide a party's retirement benefits. Talk to a lawyer first if you want to claim a portion of the respondent's retirement benefits.

For detailed information about property, see Appendix B.

STATEMENT OF ASSETS AND LIABILITIES

If your case goes to trial you will need a Statement of Assets and Liabilities. See Appendix C for more information and formats that you can use.

Have your documents reviewed

You may have your documents reviewed by a lawyer or a court facilitator before you file. Call your court or go to www.courts.oregon.gov to see if your court has a facilitator available. Court facilitators are free. For information about how to find a lawyer, call the Oregon State Bar at the number on Page 2. If you are low-income, you may get your documents reviewed for a smaller fee through the Oregon State Bar's Modest Means program, or call your local Legal Aid office.

Make copies

Make one copy of all of the completed forms for your records. See Step 2 for additional copies you will need.

STEP 2: FILING AND SERVICE

File your forms

File all of the original forms except the Summons and Notice of Statutory Restraining Order with the court clerk. The clerk will give you a case number when you file. Put the case number on all copies and originals. See below for a list of the forms you will need to copy to serve on the respondent.

You have to pay the filing fees when you file your papers. Go to www.courts.oregon.gov for the filing fee.

- If you are low income, you may ask the court to defer or waive your filing fee. You must complete an Application and Declaration for Deferral or Waiver of Fees and an Order Regarding Deferral or Waiver of Fees and file them with your papers. If the fee is deferred, you will have to pay the fee later. If the fee is waived, you don't have to pay it now. However, the judge may reconsider waived and deferred fees at the end of the case.

The clerk may give you some papers. A copy of these papers must be included with the Petition that you serve on Respondent (see below regarding service). NOTE: You are not required to serve the List Of Documents Parties May Have To Give Each Other (ORS 107.089) on Respondent, but if you do, then you both have to follow it.

Make a copy of the following forms to serve on the respondent:

- Petition
- Summons
- Notice of Filing of Confidential Information Form
- Notice of Statutory Restraining Order Preventing the Dissipation of Assets in Domestic Relations Actions
- Uniform Support Declaration, Statement of Assets and Liabilities, and Parenting Plan (if you are filing any of these documents with your Petition) (see Appendices A, C, and D for information)
- Any other forms your local court requires you to serve on Respondent

TANF
Foster

If either you or Respondent receives Temporary Assistance to Needy Families (TANF) or the Oregon Health Plan (OHP), or if your children are in foster care or in custody of the Oregon Youth Authority, then you must also send a copy of the filed Petition to the Department of Justice Division of Child Support (DCS). Your county branch office's address can be found at www.doj.state.or.us/child-support/locations. After you mail the Petition, fill out the Certificate of Mailing or Delivery to Division of Child Support and file it with the court.

SERVICE

You must officially notify Respondent that you have filed a case. This is called “service.” Follow the same steps to serve any 18, 19, or 20 year old children.

Acceptance of Service – If it is safe for you to give the respondent the papers yourself, you can use an Acceptance of Service form. If the respondent signs an Acceptance of Service, no other kind of service is required. Signing the Acceptance of Service does not mean the respondent agrees with anything in your Petition, only that he or she received the papers. You must file the papers with the court before you give the copies to the respondent.

Formal Service

If the respondent does not sign the Acceptance of Service, you must use another method. There are four ways you can serve. Service must be done after your Petition is filed.

**3 CRITICAL POINTS****

1. If you serve before you file, you will have to serve the papers again
2. You CANNOT serve the papers yourself
3. If Respondent has a lawyer, you should also mail a courtesy copy of the papers to the lawyer

1. Personal Service:

- a. By Process Server: Take a copy of your papers to the sheriff’s office in the county where Respondent is located and have a sheriff’s officer serve the papers. The sheriff’s office charges a fee for service. You can also hire a private process server of your choice.
- b. By a Non-Party: Have a competent* person 18 years or older who is a resident of Oregon and who is not a party to the case (Petitioner or Respondent), nor the lawyer of a party, serve the papers. The server cannot be an employee of any party. If the respondent is outside of Oregon, the server can be a resident of the state where the respondent is. If you have safety concerns, have the sheriff perform service.

*competent means a person who can understand, remember, and tell others about an event.

A Certificate of Service must be filed with the court by whoever serves the respondent. The certificate must include the date of service and the name of the person served.

2. Substituted Service: The process server may leave the papers at the respondent’s residence (where he or she normally lives) with someone 14 years or older who lives there. The process server must also mail a copy of the papers (with a statement of the date, time, and place that the papers were served) to the respondent by first class mail. Make sure the process server completes a Certificate of Service. The date of service is the day the first class mailing is put in the mail.

3. Office Service: The process server may leave the papers with someone in charge of the respondent's office or normal workplace. The process server must also mail a copy of the papers (with a statement of the date, time, and place that the papers were served) to the respondent by first class mail. Make sure the process server completes a Certificate of Service. The date of service is the day the first class mailing is put in the mail.
4. By Mail: First, the process server must send the papers to the respondent's home or business address by first class mail. Second, the server must send a copy by certified mail, return receipt requested. The process server must file proof of service with the court, including the signed green card, date of receipt, and item number along with a Certificate of Service. If the green card is not returned or if someone other than the respondent signed for it, then service by mail was not effective and you must try another type of service. The date of service is the day the respondent signs the returned green card.

The form is divided into two main sections: 'SENDER: COMPLETE THIS SECTION' and 'COMPLETE THIS SECTION ON DELIVERY'. The 'SENDER' section includes instructions to complete items 1, 2, and 3, and to attach the card to the back of the mailpiece. It also has a field for '1. Article Addressed to:'. The 'COMPLETE THIS SECTION ON DELIVERY' section includes fields for 'A. Received by (Please Print Clearly)', 'B. Date of Delivery' (circled in red with a red arrow pointing to it), 'C. Signature' (with an 'X' in the box), 'D. Is delivery address different from item 1? If YES, enter delivery address below:', '3. Service Type' (with checkboxes for Certified Mail, Registered Mail, Insured Mail, Express Mail, Return Receipt for Merchandise, and C.O.D.), and '4. Restricted Delivery? (Extra Fee)' (with a 'Yes' checkbox). The bottom of the form includes '2. Article Number (Copy from service label)', 'PS Form 3811, July 1999', 'Domestic Return Receipt', and the number '102395-00-01-0952'.

Proof of Service

The Certificates are your proof of service. An original Certificate of Service or Acceptance of Service must be filed with the court for your case to proceed, regardless of the method of service.

If proof of service is not filed within 63 days of filing your Petition, the court may send you a notice of dismissal. Your case may be dismissed if proof of service is not filed within 28 days of the notice.

If you are not able to have Respondent served by any of the methods listed above, you may ask a judge to allow you to use another service method. The judge might allow you to publish or post the documents. Forms to make this request are available online at www.courts.oregon.gov.

STEP 3: TEMPORARY ORDERS

You can ask the court to make temporary orders after you file the Petition. Temporary orders are effective as soon as a judge signs the order. They last until a judge changes the terms, signs the General Judgment, or dismisses the case. For example, either party may request an order for spousal/partner or child support, or an order requiring one party to move out of the family home. To make any of these requests, you must file a “motion” (request) asking the court to do what you want. You may need a lawyer to file these requests.

➤ NOTE: The General Judgment may affect earlier temporary orders done by Limited Judgment. Talk to a lawyer if you have questions.

One type of temporary order is called a Status Quo Order. This order prevents either parent from changing the children’s normal schedules, interfering with parenting time by the other parent, or changing where the children live. This does not decide custody or who can make major decisions for the children. “Normal schedule” means the children’s schedule for the three months before you file a request for a Status Quo Order.

Go to www.courts.oregon.gov for the forms to request temporary orders. The forms may not cover all temporary orders you need. Talk to a lawyer for more information.

Domestic Violence

All courts have restraining order forms for cases involving domestic violence. The judge will usually hear your request within a day or two of filing. Check with your local court for filing times and procedures.

Refer to www.courts.oregon.gov/fapa for Family Abuse Prevention Act (FAPA) forms and information.

Forms for other types of protective order are available at www.courts.oregon.gov/forms

File your forms with the court and complete service

Save these instructions to complete your case later

PART 2

FINISHING YOUR CASE

STEP 4: RESOLVING YOUR CASE

There are three ways your case can be resolved: by agreement between the parties, by default if the respondent doesn't respond, or by a judge in a hearing.

Even if you submitted Child Support Worksheets with your Petition, you MUST include a worksheet with your Judgment, regardless of how you resolve your case.

By Agreement

It is always better to resolve issues yourselves, since you know what's important to you. Once the case goes to a judge, it is out of your control. If you can't resolve the issues on your own, or if it is not safe for you to talk to Respondent, the court may provide options to help you, including mediation and arbitration. For information about arbitration, see "By Trial" section below.

Mediation: A mediator is a person trained to help people resolve disagreements. Mediation is confidential. You may ask to meet with the mediator alone if you are uncomfortable meeting with the other party for any reason. Check with your local court clerk to see if there is a fee for this service. Mediators are not judges – they cannot impose their decisions on you. Their job is to help you reach an agreement. This may be your last chance to retain control over the outcome of the case. Agreements incorporated into a Judgment are fully enforceable (see below).

Some courts may require that you mediate before you have a hearing. Check your court's Supplemental Local Rules for more information.

If mediation has not yet been ordered in your case and you would like to request it, you may file a Request for Mediation form. If your court requires mediation, you may request that the court waive mediation if you have a good reason by filing a Motion and Declaration for Waiver of Mediation. Talk to your court if you have safety concerns.

If you and Respondent have agreed to all of the issues, fill out and file:

- Declaration in Support of Judgment
- General Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage/RDP

Note: The Judgment must be signed by both parties before being submitted to the court.

By Default

Respondent has 30 days to respond to your Petition. The time starts running from the day after the date of service. The response must be in writing and must be filed with the court and mailed to you. If the respondent does not file a response within 30 days, you may request an Order of Default.

Default means that you are asking the judge to award you what you asked for in your Petition because the respondent did not file a response. Look at Oregon Rules of Civil Procedure (ORCP) rule 69 for more detailed information.

- NOTE: If the respondent has given you written notice that he or she intends to appear, you must give written notice that you intend to apply for a default order at least 10 days before you file your motion. See Uniform Trial Court Rule 2.010 for the form your notice must be in. File your notice with the court and mail it to the respondent.

The judge may not grant a default if the respondent is incapacitated, a minor, a financially incapable person, a protected person, or a respondent in a fiduciary protective proceeding, as defined by ORS 125.005.

You must also show that the respondent is not in active military service before the court can enter an order of default. This is part of the Ex Parte Motion for Order of Default & Declaration in Support. If the respondent is in active military service, you cannot get an order of default unless the servicemember waives protection under the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (SCRA). This federal law starts at 50 U.S.C. 3901. Your local law librarian can help you find it, or go to www.law.cornell.edu* (under Get the Law click U.S.Code, then click Title 50 and go to Chapter 50). This law has strict rules about what “active military service” means. This protection does not apply to all servicemembers at all times.

If the respondent is in the military, you should see a lawyer before trying to get an order of default. If a default is not done properly, the respondent can re-open the case after returning from service. Be aware that if you knowingly make false statements about the respondent’s status, you may face both federal and state penalties.

If you know the respondent is not in the military, you must state facts that explain how you know.

If you have the respondent’s Social Security Number or date of birth, go to the Department of Defense website (<https://scra.dmdc.osd.mil/>) to find out if the respondent is in active service. This site can give you a free statement of service status that you can print out (called a “certificate of service” on the website). Attach this statement, or a printout of the screen, to your motion. If you don’t have the Social Security Number or date of birth, commercial sites may be able to provide information.

If you don’t know whether the respondent is in the military and have checked the website, or don’t have the necessary information, mark “I am unable to determine whether this person is in military service” and add any facts that you do know. The judge will decide whether to grant the default.

➤ If Respondent is in the military

If Respondent is in active military service of the United States and has not responded to the Petition, the court won't go ahead with your case until one of the following things happens:

- (1) Respondent is no longer in active military service,
- (2) Respondent waives the right to avoid default in writing, or
- (3) the judge holds a special hearing in your case.

Talk to a lawyer if Respondent will not sign the waiver and you do not want to wait for military service to end. The SCRA rules are technical and complex. Contact the Oregon State Bar for help (contact information is on Page 2).

* * * * *

Requesting a Default - fill out the following forms:

- Ex Parte Motion for Order of Default and Declaration in Support
- Order on Motion for Default
- Declaration in Support of Judgment
- General Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage/RDP

The Declaration in Support of Judgment allows you to note any information that has changed since you filed the Petition. Read each section of the Petition you filed CAREFULLY and note any changes in the spaces provided in the Declaration in Support of Judgment. You must complete the rest of the Declaration in all cases.

After you make yourself a copy of the completed forms, file the originals with the court any time after 30 days from the date of service. You must file the Motion for Order of Default by the 91st day after you filed the Petition (NOT the proof of service!). If not, your case may be dismissed.

The court will send you notice when your judgment has been entered.

By Trial

If Respondent has filed a response and the parties are unable to agree on the terms of a judgment, your case may go to trial

Informal Domestic Relations Trials (IDRTs) are available in all courts if both parties agree. See UTCR 8.120 for more information. Each court handles IDRTs differently. Contact your court for more information.

Conferences with the Judge

Many courts will schedule a “status,” “pretrial,” or “settlement” conference before a case goes to trial. These meetings usually take place with a judge with both parties present, along with their lawyers (if any). You must attend any conferences that are scheduled unless you have received permission from the judge not to attend. At the conference, the judge may talk to you about how your case is going to be handled, consider requests for temporary orders, or set future court dates.

Some courts may refer certain cases to arbitration. You will receive information from the court if that happens.

- Many courts require that you mediate before you can get a trial. See the BY AGREEMENT section above.

NOTE: You must give the other party an opportunity to review the judgment before you submit it to the court. See UTCRC 5.100 for information.

You can represent yourself at trial. Some courts provide information about representing yourself on their websites. Go to www.courts.oregon.gov to find your court's website.

The State Family Law Advisory Committee (SFLAC) has written a guide that may help you prepare for trial. This guide is NOT a substitute for legal advice! The rules of court can be technical and complex. You may damage your case if you are not properly informed. If your case goes to trial, you are strongly advised to talk to a lawyer. To read the guide, go to:

<http://www.courts.oregon.gov/help/Documents/famlawtrialbrochure.pdf>

THE JUDGMENT

Regardless of how you resolve your case, a General Judgment of Dissolution of Marriage/RDP must be signed by a judge. One of you may be ordered to fill out the judgment form and give it to the court to be signed. NOTE: you must include Child Support Worksheets with your Judgment if child support is awarded.

The judgment finalizes your dissolution and contains all of the issues decided in the mediation, arbitration, trial, or agreement.

- NOTE: The General Judgment may affect earlier temporary orders done by Limited Judgment. Talk to a lawyer if you have questions.

If the respondent DID NOT file a response, the information you fill out in the final judgment should be exactly the same as what you requested in the Petition.

If the respondent DID file a response, the information should be the exactly the same as what was decided in mediation, arbitration, hearing, trial, or through your agreement. All parties must review the Judgment before you submit it to the court. You must send the Judgment document along with the Notice of Proposed Judgment or Order to the respondent and any adult children who have not filed a Waiver of Further Appearance in the case.

Other parties can object to the Judgment. If that happens, you have to discuss the objections and attempt to resolve them before you submit the Judgment to the court. If you are not able to resolve the objections, the objecting parties can either send you a written statement explaining their objections, or they can submit their objections directly to the court. You must complete the Certificate of Readiness section of the Judgment to tell the judge whether there are outstanding objections. See UTCR 5.100\(1\) for more information about notice and objections.<sup>1</sup>

If the respondent is responsible for preparing the judgment, the respondent must send the proposed judgment to you before submitting it to the court. Then you can review it and object to it within 7 days of the date it was sent to you. If you and the respondent are not able to resolve your objections after reasonable efforts, you can either send a written explanation of your objections to the respondent or directly to the court. You must notify the respondent of your intentions so that they can advise the judge that there are outstanding issues. The judge may make a decision after reviewing the documents, or the court may contact you with further information.

If you are responsible for preparing the final judgment, make a copy for yourself and one for Respondent (unless you got an Order of Default). File the original with the court.

Your dissolution is finished and effective the date the Judgment is signed by the judge. NOTE: the terms of your judgment are not enforceable until the court enters the judgment. You will receive a Notice of Entry of Judgment.

NOTE: Every document you file must have a mailing address where you will receive documents related to this case. You do NOT need to use your home address. You can use any contact address in the same state as your home. You are responsible for checking your contact address. Notify the court and the other party in writing if your contact address changes.

Appendix A – Uniform Support Declaration

You may need to complete a Uniform Support Declaration (USD) if you and Respondent do not agree on an amount for child or spousal/partner support.

You can file your USD with the Petition. If you don't file it with your Petition and Respondent opposes your claim for support, you must provide it to the court and serve a copy on Respondent within 30 days after you receive the Response.

If you are NOT requesting child support or spousal/partner support, do not file the USD.

Tips for filling out the USD:

- If you are requesting child support for the amount that the Child Support Guidelines recommend, fill out only the Declaration and attach the documents it asks for.
  - If you are requesting spousal/partner support or a different amount of child support than the Guidelines recommend, fill out both the Declaration and the USD Supplement. Attach all of the documents that the Declaration and Supplement ask for.
- If you are requesting only child support for the amount that the Child Support Guidelines recommend, only fill out the Declaration and attach the documents it asks for.
  - If you are requesting spousal/partner support or a different amount of child support than the Guidelines recommend, fill out both the Declaration and Supplement. Attach all of the documents that the Declaration and Supplement ask for.
- Use your actual, present expenses. Estimates are fine as long as they are realistic and you have no way of confirming the amount.
  - Some items may not apply to you – mark those spaces “N/A” (Not Applicable), but complete every item that does apply.
  - If your amounts are unusual or likely to change soon, include a brief explanation of why (if you are temporarily living with a relative, or if one party moved out and is no longer contributing to shared expenses). Include an estimate of what you believe your expenses will be after the situation changes.
- If you have an expense that is not listed, add it, along with a brief explanation.
- If you anticipate any major changes (birth of a new baby, a child entering or leaving school, a layoff, a car payment or mortgage being paid off), note these as well. Do NOT include fears or possibilities – only things you know or reasonably expect will happen.
- If one of your children has serious medical or dental expenses, note it and include a reasonably accurate estimate of the treatment cost.
- Household items means things like paper towels, cleaning supplies, light bulbs, storage containers.
- If you are attending school, include your tuition payments, supplies and books, and any other necessary school-related costs.

The Uniform Support Declaration can be found here:

www.courts.oregon.gov/forms in the Family Law → Miscellaneous category.

Certificate of Mailing – the Uniform Support Declaration includes a Certificate of Mailing at the bottom of the form. Once the USD is completed, copy the entire form and all attachments and mail them to the respondent. THEN fill out the Certificate of Mailing and file the original with the court. Keep a copy of all documents for your own records.

Appendix B - Property and Debts

➤ Real Property – Include property that you own together or separately and property owned before the marriage/RDP.

- Include land, houses, mobile homes, and other structures attached to or built on land. Also include partial rights to land like the right to fish, farm, cut timber or mine minerals. This does not mean personal property like clothes, jewelry, furniture, cars, etc.
- Identify the property by address, map, lot, or plat number, or any other method that is specific enough to identify the property.
- When completing the Judgment, use the full legal description of the property that is on the deed or tax records. If you improperly describe the property, you may not be able to enforce your judgment.

○ You should speak with a lawyer if:

- any party is a debtor in a current bankruptcy proceeding.
- there is a joint credit account such as a home equity line of credit on any real property. This judgment is not binding on the lender and may not prevent the other party from using the credit line, even after the judgment.
- anyone other than you and Respondent has any interest in the real property either now or in the future. For example:
  - ◇ if your title is only for life or for a fixed period of time
  - ◇ if anyone has a right-of-first-refusal to buy the property
  - ◇ if anyone else's name is on the title
  - ◇ if anyone else's name is on a loan that the property is collateral for. These people must be joined to the case or the court may not have authority to award that property.
- you are concerned about the other party selling real property located in Oregon. You can put a hold on the title of the property during the case (called “lis pendens”).

If ANY property was used to secure a loan, debt, mortgage, or other encumbrance, it is important that you speak with a lawyer. Future bankruptcy filings by either party may create problems for the other party in spite of this judgment. This is especially important for Registered Domestic Partners, as bankruptcy and IRS laws are federal and may not recognize the debt award of this judgment.

➤ Personal Property is anything you own together or separately that is not real property. This includes property owned before the marriage.

➤ If you want certain things plus equitable distribution of the rest, mark both boxes in the appropriate section and list the specific property you want in the space provided. BE AWARE that if you do not include enough information and the other party does not respond, you may have to serve the other party with corrected paperwork before you can get a Judgment.

Debts - The court will divide your debts. Use this table to list all debts in either or both of your names. Include debts that existed before your marriage/partnership; debts that you each or both incurred during your marriage/partnership; and debts that you each incurred after separation. If any debt includes amounts incurred both during the marriage/partnership and after separation, write in the “Who pays” column who should pay how much (see example). Talk to a lawyer if you have questions about who should pay which debts.

Example:

| Name of Creditor (who money is owed to) | What debt is for                                                        | Amount   | Who pays   |            |
|-----------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------------------|----------|------------|------------|
|                                         |                                                                         |          | Petitioner | Respondent |
| Chase Bank                              | Credit Card                                                             | $10,000 |            | X          |
| Wells Fargo                             | Home Equity Credit Line(petitioner added $10,000 after separation) | $20,000 | $15,000   | $5,000    |
| Local Lender                            | Petitioner’s car loan                                                   | $4,500  | X          |            |

Attach this page to the Petition if your list of debts is longer than the table in the Petition

| Name of Creditor (who money is owed to) | What debt is for | Amount | Who pays   |            |
|-----------------------------------------|------------------|--------|------------|------------|
|                                         |                  |        | Petitioner | Respondent |

Appendix C – Statement of Assets and Liabilities

---

You will need to file a Statement of Assets and Liabilities if the respondent files a Response and you have not reached an agreement as your trial date nears. Each party's Statement must be filed with the court and served on the other party at least 14 days before your trial. Check your local court's Supplementary Local Rules, Chapter 8 for other time limits and requirements.

Most courts prefer that you complete ONE joint form so that you don't have one form listing "house 1" and the other calling it "123 Main St." Your Statement should name the asset as specifically as possible. You and Respondent should do everything you can to agree on the value of your assets and liabilities. Then list who the court should give each asset or liability to. You can use one of the formats below.

In the examples below, the parties disagree about the value of the Ford Ranger but agree that it should be awarded to Petitioner. The parties agree about the value of the Kia Soul but disagree about who it should be awarded to. Leave the last 2 columns blank – the judge will make a final decision about the value of each asset and who it is awarded to.

Appendix D– Custody and Parenting Plans

Joint Custody and Sole Custody

What does “Custody” mean?

- Custody refers to decision-making about a child. Decisions may include the child’s residence, health care, education, religion, and other big issues.
- Joint custody means that the parents have agreed to decide major decisions in the child’s life together. Joint custody can also occur when parents agree about how to split up major decisions about a child. The court can order joint custody only if both parents agree to all of the terms, including the parenting plan.
- Sole custody means that one parent can make decisions alone. These are legal terms and don’t impact how much time each parent has with the child.

Regardless of the custody order, both parents will usually have time with the child (parenting time) and the right to certain information. Both parents have the right to review school records and medical records, and to authorize emergency medical, dental, psychological, or other health care if the other parent is not available, unless the court orders otherwise.

Read ORS 107.137 to see what a court will consider when awarding custody. The most important factor is always the best interest and welfare of the child.

A parenting plan is where you provide a plan for when each parent will actually be with the child (parenting time). Parenting plans can also include specific times for contact. For example, “Mother can call on Fridays between 7pm and 10pm.” Parenting time is separate from custody. For example, you can have joint custody with one parent having the child 75% of the time, and you can have sole custody with 50-50 parenting time. See below for more information.

Child support is separate from custody. Either parent can be ordered to pay child support regardless of who has custody or what kind of custody is ordered.

Sole Custody

If sole custody is ordered, the other parent will almost always have some parenting time with the child. The non-custodial parent has equal rights to the child’s school records and medical records, and to authorize emergency medical, dental, psychological, or other health care if the other parent is not available, unless the court orders otherwise.

Joint Custody

Joint custody does not mean that every day-to-day activity has to be agreed to, but major decisions must be discussed by the parties.

A joint custody order can also specify certain decisions that can be made by one parent or the other. For example, Mother may be allowed to make decisions about religious training, or Father can made decisions about medical care.

A joint custody order might specify that one parent’s home is the child’s primary residence, but it’s not required.

Parenting Time & Parenting Plans

Parenting time is what some people call ‘visitation’ – it is the time a child spends with each parent. Parenting time is detailed in a “parenting plan,” which is usually focused on the parent who does not have sole or primary residential custody.

Once the court enters a judgment with parenting time included, that time is enforceable like any other court order. Parents can file for an expedited (faster) hearing if the other is not following the parenting time in the judgment.

A parenting plan is required for all cases involving a minor child. The plan sets out the schedule and rules for each parent’s time with each child. A parenting plan should be written in the space provided in your Petition or attached to it as a separate form.

A parenting plan can be as general or as specific as you need it to be. The judge will expect to see some information about the days and times when children will be picked up and dropped off, and some plan for weekends, holidays, and school breaks. Consider whether you have children with different needs. Children at different ages may need different parenting plans. If you have a child with a medical issue, you may want to consider how the plan will impact care.

BE AWARE that if you do not include enough information in your plan and the other parent does not respond, you may have to serve the other parent with corrected paperwork before you can get a Judgment.

The parenting plan may include safety provisions for the child if problems like domestic violence, drug or alcohol abuse, or child abuse are involved in your case.

Oregon has a Basic Parenting Plan Guide for Parents. This guide has information about how to develop a plan, information about alternative schedules, and stages of your children’s growth that should be considered when creating a plan. A sample parenting plan is included in the guide. The guide can be downloaded at www.courts.oregon.gov/familylaw. There is also a Safety Focused Parenting Plan Guide on this website. This can help you develop a parenting plan if you have safety concerns for your children. Many local courts also have standard plans in their Supplemental Local Rules. Check your local court’s website. You can use these plans whole or as a guide to develop your own.

A mediator can help you create a parenting plan. Your local court may also have a mediation program for parents. A mediator is a neutral person trained to help you come to your own agreement and cannot make decisions for you. Information about mediation and parenting plans may be available through your court’s parent education program, the court facilitator, or your local law library. Some courts require you to try mediation before your hearing.

Custody/Parenting Time Evaluation - If parents can’t agree on a parenting plan, the court may order the parents to hire a custody or parenting time evaluator. Either or both parents may be ordered to pay for the evaluator.

If you and Respondent don’t agree on a parenting plan before trial, the judge will order one.

Appendix E – Support for a Child Attending School

If an adult child is attending school at least half-time according to the school's standards, that child is considered a "Child Attending School." A Child Attending School may be entitled to child support until he or she turns 21. "Child Attending School" is defined at ORS 107.108 and does not include children who are married.

IMPORTANT! After an order is made for support of a child attending school, the child must remain enrolled at least half-time AND make sufficient academic progress according to the school to qualify as a child attending school and continue to receive support.

NOTE: you can ask the court to extend child support for minor children to cover them when they qualify as Children Attending School. If a child does not immediately enter higher education after high school or drops out of high school, child support will end.

If you have an order that says support continues if the child becomes a Child Attending School, the child must notify the payor before the child turns 18 that he or she will be attending school, which school, and when the child expects to graduate or stop taking classes. Support generally continues during summers if the child has properly notified the other parent that the child intends to return to school.

The child must also provide consent to the school to release certain information to any parent paying child support. The requirements are at ORS107.108.

Paying Support for a Child Attending School

Support for an adult child is normally paid directly to the child, whether by the payor directly or by DCS. If you have good cause why the child should not receive payment, you must explain that in your Petition.

There is NO parenting plan or parenting time credit for a Child Attending School who has graduated from high school.

Notice to parties in a suit for marriage dissolution or legal separation regarding continuation of health coverage

If you or your spouse have filed for divorce or legal separation and currently hold group health insurance coverage through your spouse, your coverage may end when the court grants your divorce or separation. Oregon law offers options that may enable you to continue your coverage. This notice outlines continued coverage options available under Oregon law. Federal law, commonly known as COBRA, may also enable you to continue coverage. Note: You must act promptly to continue coverage.

Applying for individual coverage may also be an option. Insurers can no longer deny enrollment to individuals because of health or pre-existing conditions. You may be eligible to enroll in a plan through healthcare.gov or directly from an insurer. If you apply for coverage through healthcare.gov, you may qualify for financial assistance.

For more information about Oregon and federal law, consult your health insurer, the plan administrator for your insurance coverage, the employer through whom your insurance is provided, or your attorney.

The following is a summary of options under Oregon law:

- 1. Continuation of existing coverage for a divorced or legally separated spouse who is 55 years of age or older (ORS 743B.343 to 743B.345). If you are a divorced or legally separated spouse and if you are 55 years of age or older when the dissolution or legal separation occurs, you may continue your existing group coverage until you obtain other group coverage or become eligible for Medicare. In order to continue coverage, you must do both of the following:
  - A. You must notify the group health insurance plan administrator in writing of the dissolution or legal separation within 60 days of the entry of the decree of divorce or legal separation.
  - B. You must elect to continue and pay for the group coverage. You must make the election on a form provided by the plan administrator.

Note: This provision applies only if your coverage is provided through an employer who employs 20 or more employees or if your coverage is provided by a group health insurance plan that covers 20 or more employees.

- 2. Continuation of existing coverage for a divorced spouse when federal law does not provide for continued coverage (ORS 743B.347). If you are not able to continue your group health coverage under federal law (COBRA), you may continue your existing group coverage upon dissolution of your marriage for a period not exceeding nine months. The following requirements apply:
  - A. You must have been continuously covered by the group policy for at least three months prior to your divorce.
  - B. You must ask the insurer or the group policyholder, in writing, to continue your coverage. You must also pay the required premiums.
  - C. You must make your request by the latter of the following dates:
    - (1) Ten days after the date that your coverage under the group policy as a qualified family member ends;
    - or
    - (2) Ten days after the date on which the employer or group policyholder gives notice of the right to continue coverage.

3. Apply for individual coverage. If you were covered by a group health plan and you lost that coverage because of a legal separation or divorce, you may qualify for a special enrollment and be eligible to purchase an individual plan through healthcare.gov or from an insurer. To qualify for this special enrollment:

(1) Apply through healthcare.gov and pay your premium within 60 days of the date you lost your group coverage;

or

(2) Apply for individual coverage from an insurer within 60 days of the date you lost your group coverage.

Remember: The longer you wait to apply, the later your coverage will start. Financial help is available only if you apply for insurance through healthcare.gov. Your insurance agent can also help you apply through healthcare.gov.

The court grants judgment as follows:

The marriage or RDP is legally dissolved as of the date this Judgment is signed. The terms of this judgment are effective upon entry in the court register.

CHILDREN*NOTICE ABOUT PARENTING TIME AND CHILD SUPPORT

The terms of child support and parenting time (visitation) are designed for the child's benefit and not the parents' benefit. You must pay support even if you are not receiving parenting time. You must comply with parenting time and visitation orders even if you are not receiving child support.

Violation of child support orders and visitation or parenting time orders may result in fines, imprisonment, or other penalties.

Help may be available to establish, enforce, and modify child support orders. Paternity establishment services are also available. Contact your local district attorney, the domestic relations court clerk, or the Department of Justice at 1.800.850.0228 or 503.378.5567 for information.

Help may be available to establish, enforce, and modify parenting time or visitation orders. Forms are available to enforce parenting time or visitation orders. Contact your local court for information.

☐ Respondent is awarded sole custody of the following children (names): _____

Parenting time is awarded

☐ as described in the attached Parenting Plan, labeled Exhibit _____ or

☐ to ☐ Petitioner ☐ Respondent as follows _____

☐ Parenting time will be supervised by _____

☐ Any cost of supervision must be paid by ☐ Petitioner ☐ Respondent

☐ Other: _____

☐ Petitioner ☐ Respondent is not awarded parenting time because it would endanger the health and safety of the children

Relocation

- ☐ Neither parent may move more than 60 miles further distant from the other parent without giving the other parent reasonable notice of the change of residence and providing a copy of such notice to the court, or
- ☐ The requirement of ORS 107.159 regarding notice of relocation is suspended for good cause

Contact Information

- ☐ Petitioner and Respondent must each provide contact addresses and contact telephone numbers to the other and notify each other of any emergencies or substantial changes in the children's health
- ☐ Good cause exists to suspend the obligation of the parties to provide contact information to each other

Parental Authority

- ☐ The non-custodial parent's authority under ORS 107.154 is suspended for good cause

2. Child and Medical Support and Life Insurance for Children

A. Child Support

Existing Child Support Obligation

list court/agency, case number, and date of prior child support orders and judgments: _____

- ☐ No action is taken by this judgment regarding any prior child support order or judgment
- ☐ This judgment does not replace any existing child support order or judgment. Payment amount and schedule remain as ordered on (date of order or judgment): _____
- ☐ any unpaid child support is still owed
- ☐ This judgment replaces the existing child support obligation because the existing orders and judgments were issued by an Oregon court or agency, one of the parents or children receiving support still resides in Oregon, and circumstances have changed since the orders were entered. Support is due as detailed in the "Support Order" section below.
- ☐ any unpaid child support is still owed
- ☐ Other: _____

Presumed Inability To Pay Under ORS 25.245

- ☐ The parent who would pay support is presumed to be unable to pay because that parent:
- ☐ receives cash payments from a public assistance program including TANF or SSI
- ☐ is (or is expected to be) incarcerated (in jail or prison for at least 6 months)
- ☐ The presumption has not been rebutted and no child support (including cash medical support) is ordered
- ☐ The presumption has been rebutted, and support is ordered as detailed in the "Support Order" section below for the following reasons: _____

Support Order

☐ No support is ordered for reasons other than the presumption of inability to pay or continuation of an existing order or judgment (explain): _____

or

☐ Support must be paid:

By ☐ Petitioner ☐ Respondent

To ☐ Petitioner ☐ Respondent

☐ Adult Child Attending School (name): _____

On the first day of each month

Starting ☐ the month following entry of this judgment or

The total monthly amount due is: $ _____ (Child Support Worksheets are attached and incorporated, labeled Exhibit _____)

☐ different from the presumed appropriate amount of $ _____ because the presumed amount is unjust or inappropriate (explain): _____

☐ Petitioner ☐ Respondent ☐ both parties or

☐ whichever party has insurance available at reasonable cost first

ii. Cash Medical Support

☐ The paying parent is ordered to provide Cash Medical Support only when not providing health insurance for the children

☐ Cash Medical Support is not ordered because:

☐ Support is presumed to be unavailable for the reason marked above and the presumption has not been sufficiently rebutted

☐ The parent paying child support has income at or below Oregon's minimum wage for full-time employment, so cash medical support should not be ordered

☐ The children's medical needs will be met by the Uninsured Medical Expenses provision below

☐ Other (explain): _____

CHANGES TO HEALTH INSURANCE AVAILABILITY

Both the payor and the recipient of child support must notify the Division of Child Support (DCS) in writing of any change in the availability of health insurance within 10 days of the change if collection services are provided by DCS.

iii. Uninsured Medical Expenses

☐ Uninsured medical expenses are not awarded

or

or

☐ This obligation is in addition to any child support and cash medical support ordered above

C. Payment

NOTICE OF INCOME WITHHOLDING

This child support order is enforceable by income withholding under ORS 25.378 to 25.390, 25.414 to 25.372, and 25.375. The District Attorney or, as appropriate, the Division of Child Support of the Department of Justice, will assist in securing such withholding. Exceptions may apply in some circumstances.

☐ Income withholding is not ordered at this time because there is no support arrearage and

☐ The parents (or the State, if support rights are assigned) have agreed in writing to an alternative arrangement which is approved by the court; or

☐ Good cause not to require withholding is found because there is proof of timely payment of previously ordered support and income withholding would not be in the best interests of the child

In all cases, select one of the following:

☐ All support payments must be made to the Department of Justice, Child Support Accounting Unit, P.O. Box 14506, Salem, Oregon, 97309
