What these forms do

These contempt forms may be used when one party thinks that another party has failed to comply with (obey) a court order or judgment. The other party may be able to avoid contempt sanctions by complying with that order or judgment.

These forms are for “remedial” sanctions only. “Punitive” sanctions may be requested only by certain authorized lawyers. (Remedial sanctions that can be requested are listed in paragraph 3 of the Complaint, Declaration in Support, and Ex Parte Motion for Order to Show Cause Re: Contempt).

In a contempt proceeding, the party filing the Complaint is the Plaintiff. The other party is the Defendant.

NOTE: Oregon Law does not allow contempt actions for the nonpayment of money, except for support and attorney fees in family law matters. You may have other remedies for a Defendant’s failure to pay other money owed to you under a court order or judgment.

If Both Parties Already Agree

If you both agree on a remedy for the violation, you may be able to file a stipulation (agreement). Call the court to find out how to do that.

IF YOU ARE THE COMPLAINING PARTY (Plaintiff):

Information about Contempt (Remedial)

- To get a judgment for contempt and sanctions imposed against the other party, you must file your Complaint and Motion for Order to Show Cause within two years of the date when the other party failed to comply with (obey) the order or judgment at issue. Some child-related payments may have a longer deadline for filing.
- In a domestic relations (family law) case:
  - These forms may be used to enforce:
    - spousal support awards
    - orders or judgments about payment of a child's uninsured medical costs
    - other extra child-related payments separate from the monthly child support amount
    - orders requiring delivery or return of personal property or a party's signature on documents
  - These forms may not be used to enforce:
    - cash child support awards
      - If you have cash child support award enforcement issues, the Oregon Child Support Program may be able to help
        - If you are already receiving services from the Oregon Division of Child Support, contact the office handling your case, Customer Service at (800) 850-0228 (inside Oregon) or (503) 378-5567 (outside Oregon), or ask through your online account.
        - If you are receiving services through a District Attorney's office, contact that office
        - If you would like to enroll in child support services, contact the Oregon Child Support Program Customer Service at (800) 850-0228 or enroll in services online at <http://www.oregonchildsupport.gov>
        - You also could contact a lawyer or licensed paralegal for assistance.
    - custody or parenting time orders
      - For issues about parenting time enforcement, you can use other forms available on the Oregon Courts website for that purpose. Otherwise, contact a lawyer or licensed paralegal for custody or parenting time issues.
    - any of the following orders or judgments, and you should contact a lawyer or licensed paralegal for these issues:
      - dissolution (divorce) judgments that require either party to pay the other party money as a part of the division of property and debts
      - Any other judgment involving nonsupport money awards (except for attorney fees)

- If you ask for a sanction of confinement (jail):
  - Even if you do not have a lawyer, Defendant has the right to a court-appointed lawyer, if Defendant cannot afford to pay for a lawyer. The process to appoint a lawyer could delay the proceeding.
  - You will need to attend additional court dates. If the court hears testimony at a hearing, the Defendant may have the right not to testify.
  - The court will determine whether confinement should be ordered. You should be aware that confinement is usually not ordered in remedial contempt proceedings.

STEP 1: FILLING OUT FORMS

- Use black or dark blue ink. Print or type when you fill out your forms.
- File the original forms with the clerk. You should always make yourself an extra copy before you file any form with the clerk.
- Keep the court informed of your current address. It is your responsibility to keep the court informed of your current address. You are not required to use your residential address on any court form. You may use a contact address where you regularly check in. Your contact address will become public information. Please make sure you use an address that is okay for other people, including the other party, to know. It must be an address in the state where you live where you can receive mail. If you use a contact address, the court will assume that you will receive all notices sent to that address.
- Case Heading. Make sure you fill in your full names in the blanks at the top of the forms (first, middle or middle initial, last). Print the names the same way on all of the forms. You are the Plaintiff, and the other party is the Defendant.
- Case number. The clerk will give you a new case number when you file your papers. Don't fill out this part of the case heading until that time. Make sure you put the case number on all your copies and papers you file with the court.
- Underlying Case. In the first paragraph of the Complaint, you must include the case number from the underlying judgment or order you are seeking contempt about, and say whether you are the petitioner or respondent in that case.
- Optional Forms. (Available upon request) Application, Declaration and Order for Waiver or Deferral of Fees. This form allows you to defer payment of the filing fees until final judgment if you are unable to pay the fees at the time you file your motion. The court may instead waive (cancel) your fees.

You must fill out the following forms:

Starting your Case. You must fill out the following forms:

1. Complaint, Declaration in Support, and Ex Parte Motion for Order to Show Cause re Contempt. Fill in the case caption at the top of the page and each section of the form. When filling out Paragraph 3 (Relief Requested), you will need to select the sanction(s) that you want the court to order against the other party. The relief you ask for in the Complaint cannot be easily changed later in the process, so be careful in choosing what sanctions you ask the court to order against the other party. If you change your mind and want to change the type of sanctions you have asked for, you will have to file a motion to add the new provisions and serve it on the other party. Sign and date the form.

2. Order to Show Cause. Fill in the case caption at the top of the page and the “submitted by” section at the bottom of the page. The judge will complete the rest.

Have your documents reviewed

You may want to have your documents reviewed before you file. For information about how to find a lawyer or licensed paralegal, call the Oregon State Bar at the number on Page 1. If you are low-income, you might be able to get your documents reviewed for a smaller fee through the Oregon State Bar’s Modest Means program. Your local Legal Aid office might review documents for free if you qualify. Facilitators may be available for free in your court; you may have to make an appointment. Call your court for information.

Make copies

Make one copy of all of the forms for your records. You will also need one or two extra copies: one copy to serve on Defendant, and one copy to serve on Defendant's lawyer if Defendant has a lawyer in the underlying circuit court case. You will need copies of your Complaint, Declaration, and Motion, and also the Order to Show Cause once the judge has signed it.

STEP 2: FILING AND SERVICE

File your forms

- Where to File - File in the circuit court that entered the judgment or order you are trying to enforce
  - Talk to a lawyer or use the forms packet for Changing Venue (County) for Trial, available on the court’s website, if you want your complaint heard in another county.

File your forms with the court clerk. You will have to pay the filing fee when you file your papers. Go to http://courts.oregon.gov/OJD/selfhelp/pages/fee\_information.aspx for the filing fee.

- If you are low income, you may ask the court to defer (postpone) or waive your filing fee. You must complete an Application and Declaration for Deferral or Waiver of Fees and an Order Regarding Deferral or Waiver of Fees and file them with your papers. If the fee is deferred, you will have to pay the fee later. If the fee is waived, you don’t have to pay it now. However, the judge may reconsider waived and deferred fees at the end of the case.

Serving Defendant and Defendant's Lawyer or Licensed Paralegal.

After the judge has signed the Order to Show Cause re: Contempt, you must make sure Defendant is "served" with a "true copy" of the Complaint, Declaration in Support, and Ex Parte Motion for Order to Show Cause re Contempt. This delivery to Defendant, called "service," tells the Defendant that the court will hold a hearing and that they have a right to appear and challenge your Complaint. Service must be done after the Order is signed.

If Defendant is represented by a lawyer or licensed paralegal in the underlying case, you must also mail the papers to the lawyer or licensed paralegal. Complete the Service on Defendant's Lawyer or Licensed Paralegal section.

Acceptance of Service – Defendant can agree to accept service of the Complaint. If Defendant agrees to accept service, you must have them sign an Acceptance of Service form when you give them the papers. If Defendant signs an Acceptance of Service form, no other type of service is required (unless they have a lawyer or licensed paralegal). Signing the Acceptance of Service does not mean Defendant agrees with anything in your Complaint, only that they received the papers. You must still file the papers with the court before you give the copies to Defendant.

Formal Service

If Defendant does not sign the Acceptance of Service, you must use another method

More information about service (including how to serve someone in jail and special rules for military personnel) is available here:

<https://www.courts.oregon.gov/programs/family/selfhelp/Documents/HowToServeLegalPapers.pdf>

**3 CRITICAL POINTS****

1. If you serve before you file and before the judge has signed the Order to Show Cause re: Contempt, you will have to serve the papers again
2. You CANNOT serve the papers yourself
3. If Defendant has a lawyer or licensed paralegal in this contempt case, you should also mail a courtesy copy of the papers to the lawyer or licensed paralegal

Personal Service:

- a. By Process Server: Take a copy of your papers to the sheriff's office in the county where the other party is located and have a sheriff's officer serve the papers. The sheriff's office charges a fee for service. You can also hire a private process server of your choice.
- b. By a Non-Party: Have a competent* person 18 years or older who is a resident of Oregon and who is not a party to the case (Plaintiff or Defendant), nor the lawyer of a party, serve the papers. The server cannot be an employee of any party. If the other party is outside of Oregon, the server can be a resident of the state where the other party is. If you have safety concerns, have the sheriff perform service.

*competent means a person who can understand, remember, and tell others about an event.

If you are not able to have Defendant personally served in either of the ways above, you may ask a judge to allow you to use another service method ('Alternative Service'). Forms to make this request are available online at <http://courts.oregon.gov>.

Substitute Service:

If Defendant previously signed a Waiver of Personal Service as part of the judgment or order that you're enforcing, use "substitute service" instead. Have a qualified process server leave the papers at Defendant's residence (where they normally live) with someone 14 or older who lives there. The process server must also mail a copy of the papers (with a statement of the date, time, and place that the papers were served) to the other party by first class mail. The date of service is the day the first class mailing is put in the mail.

Note: if the Waiver of Personal Service specifies a different type of service, follow what the waiver says

A Certificate of Service must be filed with the court by whoever serves the other party. The certificate must include the date of service and the name of the person served. The Certificate is your proof of service. If a certificate of service is not received by the court within 63 days of filing your Complaint, the court may send you a notice of dismissal.

STEP 3: RESOLVING YOUR CASE

Go to court and attend the hearing at the time it is scheduled with the witnesses and evidence you want the Judge to consider. Bring the proposed GENERAL JUDGMENT form with you to the hearing. During the hearing, the judge may issue a judgment or order of further appearance, depending on the issues involved in your case and whether or not the other party shows up for the hearing. If the other party does not attend the hearing, the court may grant the relief you requested or, in some circumstances, issue a warrant to make the other party appear in court. At the hearing, the judge will either grant or deny the relief requested in whole or in part. You are required to attend all scheduled court appearances.

IF YOU ARE THE RESPONDING PARTY (Defendant):

STEP 1: FILLING OUT THE RESPONSE FORM

- Use black or dark blue ink and print or type when you fill out your forms.
- File the original forms with the clerk. You should always make yourself an extra copy before you file any form with the clerk.
- Keep the court informed of your current address. It is your responsibility to keep the court informed of your current address. You are not required to use your residential address on any court form. You may use a contact address where you regularly check in. Your contact address will become public information. Please make sure you use an address that is okay for other people, including the other party, to know. It must be an address in the state where you live where you can receive mail. If you use a contact address, the court will assume that you will receive all notices sent to that address.
- If Plaintiff asked for a sanction of confinement, then you have the right to a court-appointed lawyer, if you cannot afford to pay for a lawyer. The process to appoint a lawyer could delay the proceeding.

You may fill out the following form:

Response to Complaint and Ex Parte Motion for Order to Show Cause Re: Contempt, and Declaration

NOTICE TO DEFENDANT

You have the right not to file a Response

If you choose to file a Response:

- You have the right not to make any statements that could indicate you committed a crime.
- If you are concerned about incriminating yourself in your answers, you can choose not to explain why you checked a box to show disagreement.

If you choose not to file a Response, you still must attend the hearing scheduled in the Court's Order to Show Cause. (See Step 3)

Filling out the Response to Complaint and Ex Parte Motion for Order to Show Cause Re: Contempt, and Declaration

- Paragraph 1
  - if you agree with all or part of the relief Plaintiff asked for in the Complaint, fill out part 1.A.
  - if you agree with only part of Plaintiff's requested relief, explain what you

- disagree with in the part of Paragraph 1.A. that says: “☐ except as follows:_____.”
- if you do not agree with the requested relief, do not complete Paragraph 1.A. Instead, complete Paragraph 1.B., by marking the same boxes that appear in Plaintiff’s Complaint and explaining why you disagree with each request.
- Paragraph 2
  - If you were unable to comply with the court’s earlier order or judgment, explain why

STEP 2: FILING AND MAILING YOUR RESPONSE

Mail and File your forms

Make two copies of your Response to Complaint and Ex Parte Motion for Order to Show Cause Re: Contempt, and Declaration. One for your records, and one for Plaintiff. Mail a copy of your Response to Plaintiff, by United States mail. THEN fill out the Certificate of Mailing at the bottom of the Response.

File your original Response to Complaint and Ex Parte Motion for Order to Show Cause Re: Contempt, and Declaration with the court clerk. You will have to pay the filing fee when you file your papers. Go to http://courts.oregon.gov/OJD/selfhelp/pages/fee\_information.aspx for the filing fee.

- If you are low income, you may ask the court to defer (postpone) or waive your filing fee. You must complete an Application and Declaration for Deferral or Waiver of Fees and an Order Regarding Deferral or Waiver of Fees and file them with your papers. If the fee is deferred, you will have to pay the fee later. If the fee is waived, you don’t have to pay it now. However, the judge may reconsider waived and deferred fees at the end of the case.

STEP 3: THE COURT’S RULING ON THE COMPLAINT

Go to court and attend the hearing at the time it is scheduled. During the hearing, the judge may issue an order of further appearance or a judgment. The judge will either grant or deny the relief Plaintiff requested in whole or in part.

IMPORTANT: If you do not attend the hearing, the court may issue an arrest warrant to force you to appear in court.
